

CPSC and KMC USA Inc. Announce Recall of Spray String

WASHINGTON, D.C. - In cooperation with the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC), KMC USA Inc., of Franklin Park, Ill., is voluntarily recalling more than _____ cans of Party Time "Happy String." The product, used like confetti at parties, is hazardous if sprayed near an open flame due to the flammability of the propellant used with the product. The product fails CPSC's Flammability Standard. Use of the product around flame sources, such as birthday candles, could result in serious burn injuries if the spray contacts a flame. The spray string was sold at Dollar Tree, Dollar Bills and Only $1.00 stores nationwide between October 1998 and January 1999 for about $1.

Dollar Tree received a report of a 4 year old boy that was burned on his face and hand when some of the string ignited when it came into contact with lit candles on the boy's birthday cake.

Party Time Happy String comes in round metal spray containers about 5-inches high. The cans are mostly white, with various color plastic caps, and contain 1.75 ounces of liquid chemical. "PARTY TIME" is written on the can in different colored block letters, and "Happy String" is depicted as if it is being sprayed from a can of the spray string. Additional writing on the cans include, "MADE IN KOREA" . . . "IDEAL FOR DECORATING WALLS, TABLES, TREES, PEOPLE, ANYTHING..."

Consumers should take this spray string away from children and stop using it immediately. It can be returned to any Dollar Tree, Dollar Bills or Only $1.00 store for a refund. For more information, call Dollar Tree Stores, Inc. toll free at 800-876-8077 anytime.

Re: Dollar Tree Stores, Inc. ("Dollar Tree")
Happy String
SKU #77984

Dear Mr. Krivda:

Attached find our revised draft press release. Dollar Tree is voluntarily participating in the recall of the referenced product and will place recall posters in its stores. However, since Dollar Tree was merely a retailer of the product and not a manufacturer, importer or distributor, it should not be identified in the press release as one of the parties recalling the product.

The revised press release also corrects some inaccuracies in the draft and is patterned in part on a press release issued several years ago by the CPSC for a similar product. Dollar Tree is in the process of counting the number of cans of product remaining in its possession so that it can identify more accurately the number of cans being recalled.

Sincerely yours,

Beth Hirsch Berman

CPSC, KMC USA Inc. Announce Recall of Flammable Spray String

WASHINGTON, D.C. - In cooperation with the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC), KMC USA Inc., of Franklin Park, Ill., is recalling more than 190,000 cans of Party Time "Happy String." The product is hazardous if sprayed near an open flame due to the flammability of the propellant. Because it is a flammable product intended for use by children, it is a banned hazardous substance. Use of the spray string around flame sources, such as candles, could result in serious burns.

CPSC is aware of two reports of burns resulting from the use of this spray string. A 4-year-old boy that was burned when some of the string ignited while he was blowing out candles on his birthday cake. He suffered first- and second-degree burns on his face and arm. A woman sustained burns on her ear in another incident.

Party Time Happy String comes in round metal spray containers about 5-inches high. The cans are mostly white, with various color plastic caps, and contain 1.75 ounces of liquid chemical. "PARTY TIME" is written on the can in different colored block letters, and "Happy String" is depicted as if it is being sprayed from a can of the spray string. Additional writing on the cans include, "MADE IN KOREA" . . . "IDEAL FOR DECORATING WALLS, TABLES, TREES, PEOPLE, ANYTHING..."

"Dollar Tree," "Dollar Bills" and "Only $1" stores nationwide sold the spray string between October 1998 and January 1999 for about $1.

Consumers should take this spray string away from children and stop using it immediately. It can be returned to any Dollar Tree store for a refund. For more information, call Dollar Tree Stores at (800) 876-8077 anytime.

Re: Dollar Tree Stores, Inc. ("Dollar Tree")
Happy String
SKU #77984

Dear Mr. Krivda:

Please be advised Dollar Tree Stores, Inc. has received a second injury report stemming from use of the referenced product. A woman allegedly sustained burns on her ear under circumstances similar to those in the first reported injury. The woman purchased the product at a Dollar Tree store in Barnwell, South Carolina.

In light of that report, it would seem appropriate to change the paragraph in the press release that discusses reports received by Dollar Tree to the following:

Dollar Tree received two reports of individuals sustaining burns on and around their faces when some of the string ignited when it came into contact with lit birthday candles.

Sincerely yours,

Beth Hirsch Berman

BACKGROUND

An alert ^{tonight} ~~tonight~~ from the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) about two dangerous children's products. CPSC, in cooperation with the manufacturers, is recalling about 240-thousand "Baby Bjorn" infant carriers and 190-thousand cans of Party Time "Happy String". Small babies can fall out of the carriers, and the spray party string is flammable. CPSC is warning consumers to stop using both of these products immediately.

INFANT CARRIERS

Small babies can fall through the leg holes of the "Baby Bjorn" infant carrier made by Regal + Lager Inc., of Marietta, GA. Infants under 2 months of age are at greatest risk. CPSC and Regal + Lager are aware of nine reports of infants slipping through the leg holes and falling to the ground. Six of these infants suffered fractured skulls. The "Baby Bjorn" carriers were sold in stores and catalogs nationwide from January 1991 through October 1998 for about $75. Consumers can get a free retrofit kit to reduce the size of the leg holes by calling the manufacturer at (877) 242-5676. Carriers currently being sold are not included in this recall. distributed? the US firm doesn't make them Regal + Lager fall free at repair kit

FLAMMABLE SPRAY STRING

Party Time "Happy String" is hazardous if sprayed near an open flame due to the flammability of the propellant. It is ~~also~~ a banned hazardous substance since it is flammable and intended for use by children. CPSC is aware of two reports of burns associated with the use of this spray string. A 4-year-old boy suffered first and second degree burns when "Happy String" ignited while he was blowing out candles on his birthday cake. In another incident, a woman was burned on her ear.

The spray string sold nationwide at ~~several dollar stores~~ between October 1998 and January 1999 for about $1. delete now! it didn't make it to shelves Dollar Tree, Dollar City & only 81 stores

Consumers should stop using this spray string immediately. It can be returned to any Dollar Tree Store for a refund. For more information, call Dollar Tree stores at (800) 876-8077.

FOR RELEASE: THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1990

RELEASE #90-40

AEROSOL STRING STREAMERS RECALLED
FOR PROPELLANT FLAMMABILITY

WASHINGTON, D.C.- - The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) announced today the voluntary recall of five different brands of aerosol string streamers. These products, used like confetti at birthday parties and other gatherings, are hazardous if sprayed near an open flame, due to the flammability of the propellant used with the products.

The companies participating in this recall are Northeast Imports, Inc., Central Falls, RI; Masquerade, Inc., Brooklyn, NY; Topstone Industries, Inc., Danbury, CT; Franco-American Novelty, Co., Inc., Glendale, NY; and Fun World Inc., Carle Place, N.Y.

Tests by the CPSC show that these products, marketed during the past year, are flammable and therefore banned under provisions of the Federal Hazardous Substances Act because of their use by children. Use of these products around flame sources such as birthday candles could result in serious burn injuries if the spray contacts a flame.

The CPSC learned of this problem through consumer complaints to its hotline. Reports of serious burn injuries to both children and adults involving these and similar products have been investigated. Typically the victims are burned during birthday parties when friends or family spray the string streamer near or onto the candles of a birthday cake.

The products are packaged in aerosol cans having various colored plastic overcaps indicating the color of the string streamer inside the can. Individual product identification is as follows:

- o Northeast Imports, Inc., Central Falls, RI
3.5 oz. cans having a lithographed or paper label with a green background labeled in part "Streamer Spray"
- o Masquerade, Inc., Brooklyn, NY
150 gram cans having a lithographed label with a white background labeled in part "MASQUERADE CRAZY STRINGS"
- o Topstone Industries, Inc., Danbury, CT
3.5 oz. cans having a lithographed label with a black background labeled in part "Tricky Fun String Environmentally Safe Contains No Fluorocarbons".
(Cans of Tricky Fun String without this statement do not present the flammability hazard and are not being recalled.)
- o Franco-American Novelty Co., Inc., Glendale, NY
3.5 oz. cans having a lithographed label with a blue background labeled in part "GOOFY FLYING STRING"
- o Fun World Inc., Carle Place, NY
3.5 oz. and 7 oz. cans having a lithographed label reading in part "ITS FUN TYME! STRING CONFETTI" and an added clear adhesive label reading "SAFE FOR THE ENVIRONMENT FLUOROCARBON FREE." "STRING CONFETTI" cans which have had the clear adhesive label removed because of use are also being recalled.

A total of approximately 1,135,000 cans of all five brands of string streamer were sold nationwide during the past year for less than $5.00 per can at retail.

Consumers should immediately discontinue the use of these products and return them to the retail store where purchased for a full refund of the purchase price.

NOTE: To report an unsafe product or a product-related

RE: Initial Report of Dollar Tree Stores, Inc.
Happy String
SKU #774984

Dear Compliance Officer:

In accordance with the Consumer Product Safety Act, Dollar Tree Stores, Inc. ("Dollar Tree"), by counsel, is voluntarily making this initial report because it has obtained information about a possible defect in the referenced product that may have led to a serious injury. The submission of this initial report does not constitute an admission of liability.

Dollar Tree purchased for resale spray cans of Happy String, SKU #774984 from KMC USA, Inc., 9959 Pacific Avenue, Franklin Park, Illinois 60131. On or about December 9, 1998, Dollar Tree received correspondence from an attorney who advised his client's son was injured when some of the string ignited while the child was blowing out candles on his birthday cake. The child allegedly sustained burns on his face and was taken to a hospital where he was treated and released. By correspondence dated December 11, 1998, KMC USA, Inc. was informed of the incident that gave rise to this report.

For additional information, please contact Beth Hirsch Berman at Hofheimer Nusbaum, P.C., Dominion Tower, Suite 1700, 999 Waterside Drive, Post Office Box 3460, Norfolk, Virginia 23514-3460, (757) 629-0604.

Party Time Happy String, 1.75 oz
SKU #774984
RP990070

Dear Mr. Hong:

The staff received a report that Party Time Happy String, SKU #774984, sold by your firm to Dollar Tree Stores, Inc, Norfolk, VA was involved in an injury of a young child when string emitted from the product ignited causing burns on the child's face. This information was forwarded to you in a correspondence dated December 11, 1998 from Dollar Tree Stores, Inc. The staff of the Consumer Product Safety Commission obtained a sample (99-490-1154) of the product from Dollar Tree Stores, Inc.

In a conversation with you on January 6, 1999, you reported that approximately 190,400 cans of the Party Time Happy String, SKU #774984 were sold only to Dollar Tree Stores, Inc. in Norfolk, Virginia in October of 1998 and that your firm had no inventory of the product. You also said that you were aware of the injury report. You were unable to provide me with a flammability test report for the product.

The staff tested the product by the method described in 16 C.F.R. § 1500.45 and determined that the product is flammable as defined under 16 C.F.R. § 1500.3(c)(6)(viii) as the flame projection exceeded 18 inches when the valve was opened. Testing also determined that the product exhibited flash back. As a result, the product is a hazardous substance as described under 16 C.F.R. § 2(f)(1)(v) of the Federal Hazardous Substances Act (FHSA), 15 U.S.C. § 1261(f)(1)(v).

1261(f)(v), and, as it is a child's product, it is a banned hazardous substance under § 2(q)(1)(A) of the FHSA, 15 U.S.C. § 1261(q)(1)(A).

The sale, manufacture for sale, offer for sale in commerce, or importation of any banned hazardous product is a prohibited act under Section 4 of the FHSA, 15 U.S.C. § 1263 and could subject your firm to the Penalties outlined Section 5 of the FHSA, 15 U.S.C. § 1264. As a result, you could be subject to fines of up to $1.5 million and imprisonment for not more than one year, or both. Please review Chapter 1 of the enclosed Regulated Products Handbook (Handbook) for additional details of these sanctions.

The Commission staff considers this test failure to be extremely serious and asks that you immediately contact Dollar Tree Stores, Inc. and implement a voluntary consumer level recall. This recall program is to include a recall notification letter to be issued to Dollar Tree Stores, Inc., point of purchase recall posters where the product was offered for consumer sale and the issuance of a cooperative press release by the Commission. We also request that you produce a video news release in cooperation with the staff. The staff requests that you carefully review the rest of your product line for other children's products that contain the same chemical composition and therefore may be considered for similar corrective action.

If you disagree with the Commission staff's findings that the product does not comply with the regulations, Chapter 2 of the enclosed Handbook describes the procedures for presenting your views and any supporting evidence to the staff.

If you plan to export the products, you must follow the procedures outlined in Chapter 6 of the Handbook. Failure to do so could subject you to the penalties described in Chapter 1 of the Handbook. The Commission may prevent the export of the products if it determines that their exportation presents an unreasonable risk of injury to U.S. consumers.

Sections 15 and 37 of the CPSA contain requirements for reporting to the Commission information on certain products you manufacture, import or distribute. Chapter 5 of the Handbook describes the reporting requirements applicable to your firm. Chapter 7 of the Handbook contains information about the confidential treatment of information you submit to the Commission.

Please respond by facsimile or by telephone within 24 hours from the date you receive this letter, outlining the specific corrective actions you plan to take to address the hazard associated with this product. Please direct your response to Frank Krivda Compliance Officer, at the address list above or at the telephone number (301) 504-0400 X1372.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

Frank Krivda
